CHARLESTON HOTELS

Gas lights flicker along the cobblestone streets of Charleston where horse-drawn carriages smartly trot past grand old 18th and 19th century homes, filled with elegant antiques and portraits of long-dead ancestors; while carefully tended walled gardens hint of untold charms within. At Fort Sumter, the first shots of the Revolution were fired. Not far from town, one of the South's most beautiful ante-bellum plantations, Boone Hall, sprawls in a spectacular setting of live oaks draped with Spanish moss. Feel the ghosts of long ago emerge from the mists.

RENAISSANCE CHARLESTON

Nestled right in the heart of Charleston's famed historic district, the Renaissance Charleston Hotel exudes a warmth as gracious as the city itself. Just steps away from Charleston's beautiful downtown market area, historic homes, King Street shops and other fascinating landmarks, the Renaissance features elegantly appointed guest rooms and offers the perfect combination of style, ambience, comfort and true Southern hospitality.
